

Concert Attire for Male Piano Majors

The proper classical performance attire for the men in SOA Piano is a tuxedo, with a wing collar tux shirt, black bowtie and cummerbund (or black vest). Ideally, black studs are to be worn in place of the buttons. Black dress shoes and black socks complete the men's uniform.

The tux can be purchased at any formal wear store or other menswear store that carries formal attire. The average cost for the entire outfit, not including shoes, ranges from $120-$150+ depending on the vendor.

These two online vendors offer affordable tuxedo options.
